

SIMPLICITY MINISTRIES®

2 COR 11:3

Calling generations of all nations to the simplicity and purity of devotion to Christ.

Men's Events

Reaching and equipping men to be simply and purely devoted to Christ is strategic. It is the key to the restoration of the family, the revival of the church, and reaching communities and the nations with the Gospel of Christ.

When you reach and equip men, you are reaching and equipping divinely appointed leaders yielding a multiplied return in the home, the church, and the community. Men are an increasingly unreached demographic in most communities.

When you reach and equip men, you are reaching and equipping divinely appointed leaders yielding a multiplied return in the home, the church, and the community.

Mike Thibodeaux is the founder of Simplicity Ministries® and has been a speaker and evangelist since 1997.

Mike and his wife, Debbie, came to the Northwest in March of 2001 and currently reside in Portland, OR. Mike is a father of three.

Mike is concerned that, just as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, so the minds of men are being led astray from the simplicity and purity of devotion to Christ.

For the past two years, Mike's growing passion for reaching and equipping men has led to the beginning of a weekly men's group called Men of Simplicity (July 2009) and developing more than six conferences for men, each including at least four teaching sessions with accompanying small group discussion guides. To book Mike for your next men's event, please contact our office.
